1- Please explain achievements in Astronomy in 1 sentence.

>>Kepler: Kepler discovered that planets was moving elleptical orbits not in perfect circles. He did that by looking Brahe's datas.(Law of Ellipses)

>>Copernicus: Copernicus believed Sun is the center of the Universe and proposed Heliocentric Model.

>>Tycho Brahe: Brahe collected data over 30 years. These datas were very accurate but his experiments was wrong.

2- What do we need to learn about history? What changed the world in terms of access to information? How did the dissemination of information become easy?

Maybe we can reach ancient tables to reach some informations. Invention of theatre (contribution to society) , invertion of books and establishing of libraries and then invention of encyclopedia. Additionally, nowadays this thing is definitely the internet. These are the cases that changed the game. And they are important dissemination of information easily and some devices is also important like printing technology.

3- How did Newton prove that white light is composed of multiple colors?

Newton used prisms to split white light into a spectrum of colors, observed no further separation when isolating one color (like orange), leading him to conclude that white light consists of various colors.

4- Why is Scientific Nomenclature important? How is it related to science?

Science and scientific nomenclature improves each other. Science produce facts, ideas represent facts, and words express the ideas.

These are 2 examples : Newton and Lavoisier.

5- There were some ideas that changed in the world after Galileo invented the telescope. Can you give some examples?

-Perfectly heavenly bodies is not perfectly-Mountains in moon.

-4 satellite revolve around jupiter so world not center of universe.dispute geocentric